

SHENKER RUSSO & CLARK LLP

Jessica Gammans

jessica.gammans@srclawoffices.com

Jessica is an Administrative Assistant for the firm.

Prior to joining Shenker Russo & Clark, Jessica worked for six years in the New York State Assembly Communication Information Services Department assisting various Members of Assembly with a variety of tasks and projects. Prior to the Assembly, she worked for Governor Andrew Cuomo as a Confidential Aide in the communication office. Jessica also worked as an Administrative Assistant at Fitness Together for five years.

Personal and Community Service

Jessica was born in Billings, Montana and moved to the Capitol Region in 1985. In 2000, she left to attend Utah State University where she graduated with a BS in Archaeology.

Outside of the office, you can find Jessica in her garden, in the mountains with her husband and dog, or at home snuggling with her cats. She's is also an avid runner, participating in 5ks and other distance races every year.

