

SHENKER RUSSO & CLARK LLP

Amelianne McDonnell

amelianne.mcdonnell@srclawoffices.com

Amelianne provides administrative support across multiple practice areas including Alcohol & Beverage Licensing, PAC Compliance and Government Affairs at Shenker Russo & Clark.

Prior to joining the firm, she spent 13 years working in veterinary medicine in a variety of roles, namely in administrative support, management, and marketing. With strengths in communication, creative problem solving and cross functional collaboration, she supported a portfolio of veterinary hospitals in Utah and the mountain west area driving growth, streamlining workflows, fine tuning the client journey, and engaging with hospital teams to develop a culture of trust and compassion.

Amelianne received a BFA in Illustration from The Fashion Institute of Technology and spent a summer semester in Galway, Ireland. In her personal time Amelianne enjoys engaging in creative work (drawing, painting, film photography), is an avid consumer of books, movies, and tv, and spends hours outside with her wirehaired pointer mix Mingus, fly fishing, hiking, and birding.

